

Data protection information for trainings

This data protection information will inform you about the processing of your personal data that we collect from you in connection with your participation in Design Consulting for Additive Production (hereinafter: training). Your personal data will be processed in compliance with the applicable data protection regulations.

Personal data, as defined by Article 4 (1) General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) include all information related to an identified or identifiable natural person.

1. Name and contact information of the controller and corporate data protection officer

Controller within the meaning of Art. 4 (7) GDPR is:

Fraunhofer-Gesellschaft

Please feel free to contact the data protection officer directly at any time with your questions concerning your data protection rights and/or your rights as data subject.

2. Personal data processing and purposes of data processing

a) Training registration

If you want to register for a training, we collect the following mandatory data:

- Surname, first name,
- Address,

07.11.2024

- Payment data, depending on the payment method you have selected (e.g. credit card details, bank details) and
- E-mail address.

The purpose of processing the mandatory data is to identify you as training participant, to check the provided data for plausibility, to reserve a spot for your participation and to establish a contractual relationship with you.

We also require your data in order to prepare name badges and lists of participants for other participants, as applicable, and to supply you with training information before, during, and after the training. This is done to ensure optimal participation for you and to allow us to plan the training and ensure that it goes smoothly.

We need your payment information to process the participation fee.

In addition, further information such as telephone number and newsletter registration can be provided voluntarily. The provision of voluntary data enables us to plan and carry out the training in line with your interests.

We process data at your request and for the purposes described by Art. 6 (1) lit. b GDPR to fulfill the obligations of the participation agreement and to execute precontractual provisions.

We will use your email address to inform you about similar trainings organized by us in the future only if you have expressly consented to this use of your email address or if we have informed you thereof separately when collecting your email address and have pointed out your right to object to this use at any time. To the extent that this use is not based on consent, the processing takes place on the basis of Art. 6 (1) lit. f GDPR. This may be the case in a business customer relationship if you are an existing customer, the product or service is similar, and we have informed you that you can object to the processing at any time. We have a legitimate interest in notifying our participants of other trainings also organized by us.

In the case of trainings for which a fee is charged, the personal data we collect for the training are, in principle, stored until the end of the standard limitation period of three years after the end of the year in which the training was held, and the data are erased after that. In the case of free trainings, we erase the personal data collected by us no later than six months after the training was held. Storage beyond the respective period stated takes place only if and to the extent that:

- we are obligated to store the data for a longer period pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. c GDPR based on statutory obligations of storage and documentation (especially Sec. 147 of the German Fiscal Code (AO)). In this case, the data are stored only to the extent required by the retention obligation.
- you have consented to storage beyond that pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. a GDPR.
- we use your email address, subject to the requirements set out in Sec. 7 (3) of the German Act Against Unfair Competition (UWG), to inform you of future trainings by email. In this case, we store your email address and your first and last names until you object to processing for this purpose.

07.11.2024

To accept training registrations from our online visitors, we have commissioned the service provider Mailingwork GmbH, Schönherrstraße 8, 09113 Chemnitz („MAILINGWORK“). The purpose of working with the service provider is the professional management of online registrations. This service requires storing the collected data on the servers of „MAILINGWORK“ in Germany.

We have entered into a data processing agreement with „MAILINGWORK“. By signing this contract with us, „MAILINGWORK“ agrees to process the data on our behalf pursuant to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and to ensure that the rights of the data subjects are protected.

If you register using an online form on our website, please also see our data protection information, accessible at https://www.iapt.fraunhofer.de/en/data_protection.html that explains which data are already collected and processed as soon as you visit our website.

Moreover, as a research institution, we are subject to various requirements pursuant to foreign trade regulations (among them Council Regulation (EC) No 2580/2001). In order to properly comply with these statutory requirements, we use your first and last names along with your address and date of birth in order, among other things, to carry out sanction list screening. The processing is done pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. f GDPR. We have a legitimate interest in processing these data in this respect since otherwise, as the controller, we may be threatened with legal consequences.

b) Subscribing to the newsletter in the context of the training

In the context of the training, you have the option to register to receive our regular newsletter. You can do this either online when registering for the training or directly at the training itself by entering your email address in a form intended for this purpose.

Once you have subscribed, you will receive a registration notification by email, which you need to confirm to receive the newsletter (so-called double opt-in). Your email response serves as confirmation that you are in fact the person who initiated the subscription.

We will send you the newsletter exclusively if you have given your express consent pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. a GDPR.

You may unsubscribe at any time, e.g. via a link at the end of each newsletter. Alternatively, you may also unsubscribe by email via datenschutz@zv.fraunhofer.de.

Your email address is erased without delay after you withdraw your consent to receive the newsletter, unless you have consented to storage beyond that pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. a GDPR or unless such storage is necessary, pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. b GDPR, for the performance of the contract.

c) Photos and videos

Photos and videos will be taken to document the training in pictures. Since you may be identified in these images, either directly or indirectly, they represent personal data.

07.11.2024

The recordings of the training courses are for quality assurance purposes and are used exclusively internally and for this purpose.

Data processing is carried out on the basis of Art. 6 (1) lit. f GDPR. The stated purposes are legitimate interests within the meaning of the aforementioned provision.

In individual cases, we want to publish recordings for follow-up reporting on our media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram or our website. This processing serves in particular to document and advertise our training.

Data processing will only take place if you have given consent pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. a GDPR.

The images will be stored for 3 years.

3. Forwarding data to third parties

We do not transfer your personal data to third parties for purposes other than those mentioned below.

a) For performance of the contract

Your personal data are disclosed to third parties where legally permissible and required, pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. b GDPR, for the performance of the contracts and agreements with you. This includes in particular disclosure of the data to training partners for the purpose of planning and holding the training as well as disclosure of payment data to our payment service provider or financial institutions in order to process registration fee payments. Third parties may use the transferred data for the above-mentioned purposes only.

b) For additional purposes

Beyond the above, we disclose your personal data to third parties only if:

- you have given consent pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. a GDPR, or
- in the training that there is a legal requirement for disclosure pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. c GDPR.

4. Rights of the data subject

You have the following rights:

- pursuant to Art. 7 (3) GDPR, to withdraw your consent at any time. This means that we may not continue the data processing based on this consent in the future;
- pursuant to Art. 15 GDPR, to obtain access to your personal data processed by us. In particular, you may request information about the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned, the categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, and the envisaged period for which the data will be stored. Moreover, you have the right to request rectification, erasure, or restriction of processing, to object to processing, the right to lodge a complaint, and to obtain information about the source of your data if they were not collected by us, as well as about the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, and, if applicable, meaningful information about the logic involved;

- pursuant to Art. 16 GDPR, to obtain the rectification of inaccurate data or the completion of your personal data without undue delay;
- pursuant to Art. 17 GDPR, to obtain the erasure of personal data saved by us unless processing is necessary to exercise the right of freedom of expression and information, to comply with a legal obligation, for reasons of public interest, or to establish, exercise or defend legal claims;
- pursuant to Art. 18 GDPR, to obtain restriction of processing of your personal data if you contest the accuracy of the data, the processing is unlawful but you oppose the erasure of the personal data, or if we no longer need the personal data but you still require the data for establishing, exercising or defending legal claims, or if you have filed an objection to the processing pursuant to Art. 21 GDPR;
- pursuant to Art. 20 GDPR, to receive your personal data that you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format or to request the transmission of those data to another controller and
- pursuant to Art. 77 GDPR, the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. Generally, you may contact the supervisory authority of your habitual residence, place of work or the registered offices of our organization.

Right to object

If your personal data is processed on the basis of legitimate interests pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. f GDPR, you have the right to object to the processing of your personal data pursuant to Art. 21 GDPR if reasons exist for doing so that are based on your special situation or if the objection relates to direct marketing. In the latter case, you have a general right to object, with which we will comply without you having to provide information about a special situation.

If you would like to assert your right to object, an email to datenschutz@zv.fraunhofer.de will suffice.
